

Guide for Parents' blog posts

1. TITLE of your blog post:
2. Your name:
3. Do you wish for your name to remain anonymous?
4. Location in QLD:
5. Email address: (for our use only - we will not share this).

Please use the following questions as a guide only. Please write as one concise blog post rather than directly answering the questions.

1. Please introduce yourself and your family, where you are located, and a little about your lifestyle.
2. What Nature Play QLD activity did you undertake and why?
3. Why is outdoor play and unstructured play important to you?
4. How has participating in Nature Play QLD activities helped your children?
5. How has this helped you/your family?
6. What hurdles did you/do you need to overcome?
7. What were the best outcomes? Anything unexpected?
8. Do you have recommendations on what you'd do again (what worked)
9. Any recommendations on what you'd differently next time (what didn't really work).
10. Anything else? or What next?

Other tips:

- Suitable length: 700-1000 words.
- We encourage you to type it in word first, in case you experience technical difficulties when submitting online.
- We recommend providing at least one photo to support your blog post.
- We encourage you to embed links within your content, where practical.
- Blogs can be uploaded directly to our website after you sign-up or log in <http://www.natureplayqld.org.au/user/login>. Blog posts will be approved by us before you can view online.

or

- If you need to make alternative arrangements, you may submit your blog with the above info to imogene@natureplayqld.org.au in a word document with photos attached as .JPG files
